Deletions of Montana's Impact fee Law contained in HB684

a water supply production, treatment, storage, or distribution facility a wastewater collection, freatment, or disposal facility of the sasterwater collection, treatment, or disposal facility or a flood control facility other facilities for which documentation is prepared as provided in [section 2] that have been approved as part of an impact fee ordinance or resolution by: in a two-thirds majority of the governing body of an incorporated city, town, or consolidated local government an ananimous vote of the board of county commissioners of a county government. "Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 7-6-1601-2.1.a describes existing conditions of the facility establishes citized school of service standards— 7-6-1601-2.1.d describes existing conditions of the facility establishes citized for service of the facility establishes citized for service and for service of service standards— 7-6-1601-2.1.d describes existing conditions of the facility establishes these explical improvements necessary to enter future needs for service describes existed in the facility establishes these explical improvements necessary to enter future needs for service describes existed in the facility establishes the explication whether one service area or more than one service area or the facility establishes the establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will see the exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will see the exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use t	7-6-1601-7	Meets the Definition of "Public Facility? "Public facilities" means:	ыa	l	684
a statewater collection, retention, detention, treatment, or disposal facility or a flood control facility on the facilities for which documentation is prepared as provided in [section 2] that have been approved as part of an impact fee ordinance or resolution by:			y printer and the second	newspillerines with	Minterior Constitution of the Constitution of a storm water collection, retention, detention, treatment, or disposal facility or a flood control facility other facilities for which documentation is prepared as provided in [section 2] that have been approved as part of an impact fee ordinance or resolution by: (ii) a two-thirds majority of the governing body of an incorporated city, town, or consolidated local government a unanimous vote of the board of county commissioners of a county government. "Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 7-6-1601-2.1.a describes existing conditions of the facility escablishes level of service standards— 7-6-1601-2.1.d describes existing conditions of the facility escablishes for construction and maintenance of the facility escablishes for construction whether one service area is necessary to establish a correlation-between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital exists for expandion of the facility to provide service new development establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will sessing the proportionate share of existing efficiencies from the impact fee and the service area is necessary to establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will see the exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the methodology that the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k iii and the service and the excluded of the excl
(f) control feet facilities for which documentation is prepared as provided in [section 2] that have been approved as part of an impact fee ordinance or resolution by: a two-thirds majority of the governing body of an incorporated city, town, or consolidated local government "capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. describes existing conditions of the facility 4-6-1601-2.1a describes existing conditions of the facility 4-6-1601-2.1b describes existing conditions of the facility 4-6-1601-2.1b describes existing conditions of the facility 4-6-1601-2.1c describes in majority of the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital improvements on the describes and proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide control of existing deficiencies from the impact fee to new development 4-6-1601-2.1c describes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand 4-6-1601-2.1c describes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand 4-6-1601-2.1c describes the amount of the impact fee ordinance or resolution by: a two-thirds majority of the governing body of an incorporated city, town, or consolidated local government a unanimous vote of the board of county commissioners of a county government. "Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee and include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee and distinct include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not describes existed service standards—stabilistic schese sapital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies these capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to evolude operations and maintenance costs and capital improvements of the budget of the governmental entity that is schedules construction of public facility to provide service to new development schedules construction of the impact fee that will be imposed fee as the will be incorred by the governmental entity as a result of new develop	(4)	=		d as o	art of an
(ii) a two-thirds majority of the governing body of an incorporated city, town, or consolidated local government a unanimous vote of the board of county commissioners of a county government. "Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. describes existing conditions of the facility describes existing conditions of the facility describes existing conditions of the facility forecasts future additional needs for service for a defined period of time didntifies capital improvements needed for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development catablishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1602.5. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be inaccordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of inf	(f)		арріоте	p	u
a unanimous vote of the board of county commissioners of a county government. "Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 4. An impact fee and including the period of time including the collected impact fee sential improvements needed for service for a defined period of time identifies those capital improvements needed for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation-between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and exercised or devicing deficiencies from the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 5. Calloit 2.1 k.iv 5. Calloit 2.1 k.iv 5. Calloit 3. k.iv 5. Calloit 4. k.iv 5. Calloit 5. k.iv The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be accordanc	\(\frac{1}{2}\)	The state of the s
a unanimous vote of the board of county commissioners of a county government. "Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. Jesofibes existing conditions of the facility establishes level of service standards. Joreants future additional needs for service for a defined period of time identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies those capital improvements needs for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation-between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity that is schedulec construction of public facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity that is schedulec construction of public facility expansion or improvements of the budget of the governmental entity that is schedulec construction of public facility expansion or improvements or expected accounting principles. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the development's share of the costs incurred by the execution of payment fee or understan	(ii)	a two-thirds majority of the governing body of an incorporated city, town, or consolidated l	ocal goverr	ıment
"Capital improvements" means improvements, land, and equipment with a useful life of 10 years or more that increase or improve the service capacity of a public facility. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. Jeschibes existing conditions of the facility establishes level of service standards. 7-6-1601-2.1.b. 7-6-1601-2.1.c. 7-6-1601-2.1.e. 1-6-1601-2.1.e. 1-6-1601-2.1.
7-6-1601-2.1 An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. Action 2.1.b dentifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies those capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies those capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies those capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies those capital improvements necessary to establish the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital improvement in the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that:	 		vears or m	ore th	at increase
An impact fee may include a fee for the administration of the impact fee not to exceed 5% of the total impact fee collected. 7-6-1601-2.1.a describes existing conditions of the facility establishes level of service standards— 7-6-1601-2.1.d describes existing conditions of the facility establishes level of service standards— 7-6-1601-2.1.d dentifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service dentifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service dentifies those capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service dentifies those capital improvements needed for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expanation of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the mentodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the mentodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the mentodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the mentodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and establishes the mentodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance of the establishes the mentodology and time period ever which the governments to serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements to serve projected growth pr	7-6-1601.1.a
7-6-1601-2.1.a describes existing conditions of the facility establishes level of service standards— 7-6-1601-2.1.d dentifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements needed for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that:			of the total	impac	t fee describes existing conditions of the facility r-6-1601-2.1.b describes existing conditions of the facility establishes level of service standards for-6-1601-2.1.d r-6-1601-2.1.d r-6-1601-2.1.d r-6-1601-2.1.d restablishes the expital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements needed for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits capital exists for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: projects costs of the capital improvements soluciate collected impact lees for construction of the capital improvements soluciate collected impact lees for construction of the capital improvements soluciate collected impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must never the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements the need for public facilities capital improvements rescribed to the m	7-6-1601.5.a			•
7-6-1601-2.1.b 7-6-1601-2.1.c 7-6-1601-2.1.c 7-6-1601-2.1.e 7-6-1601-2.1.e 7-6-1601-2.1.e 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.f 7-6-1601-2.1.b 7-6-16
7-6-1601-2.1.d identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements necessary to establish a correlation makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii	7-6-1601-2.1.b
7-6-1601-2.1.d identifies capital improvements necessary to meet future needs for service identifies capital improvements necessary to establish a correlation makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii	7-6-1601-2.1.c	forecasts future additional needs for service for a defined period of time
identifies those capital improvements needed for continued operation and maintenance of the facility makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.i projects costs of the capital improvements to serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements to serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements allocates collected impact fee for construction of the capital improvements 3-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: 1-6-1602.5.a 7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.ii		-
makes a determination whether one service area or more than one service area is necessary to establish a correlation between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee share will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii reference of the spital improvements and updated at least every 2 years. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the migrat fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs development. The following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs development. The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.corvice payments, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may no	7-6-1601-2.1.e		the facility
7-6-1601-2.1.f between impact fees and benefits establishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or serve projected growth projects costs of the capital improvements or experience to several least a 5-year period and is reviewed and updated at least every 2-years. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements. The calculation of each impact fee must be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be incurred by the new The impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating factors must be considered to be made by or as a result of the devel		······································	-		errelation-restablishes the methodology and time period over which the governmental entity will assign the proportionate share of capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: -6-1601-2.1.k.ii re-6-1601-2.1.k.ii re-6-	7-6-1601-2.1.f		,
7-6-1601-2.1.h capital costs for expansion of the facility to provide service to new development establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee stablishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fees for construction of the capital improvements covers at least a 5-year period and is reviewed and updated at least every 2-years. The amount of each impact fee most be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost of infrastructure improvements. The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements required to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements service to make in the impact fee. The costs for correction of existing defic			n the prope	etion:	ate share of
-establishes the methodology that the governmental entity will use to exclude operations and maintenance costs and correction of existing deficiencies from the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee establishes the amount of the impact fee that will be imposed for each unit of increased service demand has a component of the budget of the governmental entity that: 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fees for construction of the capital improvements occurs at least a 5-year period and is reviewed and updated at least every 2 years. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's chare of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the eystem improvements, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match they	7-6-1601-2.1.h	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
7-6-1601-2.1.i 7-6-1601-2.1.k 7-6-1601-2.1.k 7-6-1601-2.1.k 7-6-1601-2.1.ki 7-6-1601-2.1.ki 7-6-1601-2.1.ki 7-6-1601-2.1.kiii 7-6-1602.5 An impact fee impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements considered The meed for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechan		-	d mainten:	ance c	osts and
7-6-1601-2.1.k.i 7-6-1601-2.1.k.i 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fees for construction of the capital improvements covers at least a 5-year period and is reviewed and updated at least every 2-years. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommedating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development. The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommedating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development of public facilities capital improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the cystem improvements. Encourage parameters are available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existi	7-6-1601-2.1.i	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
7-6-1601-2.1.k.i 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii schedules construction of public facility capital improvements to serve projected growth 7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii projects costs of the capital improvements 3-6-1601-2.1.k.iii projects costs of the capital improvements 3-6-1601-2.1.k.iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements consideration of payments for system improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements. Service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the	7-6-1601-2.1.j	-1	vice demar	ad
7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiii 7-6-1601-2.1.k.iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii		-
7-6-1601-2.1.k.iii projects costs of the capital improvements allocates collected impact fees for construction of the capital improvements covers at least a 5-year period and is reviewed and updated at least every 2-years. The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements consideration of payments for system improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements. Service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1601-2.1.k.i	-
7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development. The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development in the following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the industribution of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accomm	7-6-1601-2.1.k.ii
7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility expansion or improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development. The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development The following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development in the following factors must be considered The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the industribution of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accomm	7-6-1601-2.1.k.iii	allocates collected impact fees for construction of the capital improvements
improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs:development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i The need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1601-2.1.k.iv	4
improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity as a result of new development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs:development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i The need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:		1
development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs: development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i the need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Gosts for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	ł	The amount of each impact fee imposed must be based upon the actual cost of public facility	y expansior	ı or 7-6-1602.5.a An impact fee must meet the following requirements: The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the costs of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs:development. The following factors must be considered T-6-1602.5.b.i the need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of T-6-1602.5.b.ii T-6-1602.5.c Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:		improvements or reasonable estimates of the cost to be incurred by the governmental entity	y as a resulf	t of ne	ew .
The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the development's share of the cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs:development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i The need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of 7-6-1602.5.b.ii 7-6-1602.5.c Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1602.3	development. The calculation of each impact fee must be in accordance with generally accept	ted accour	nting p	orinciples.
7-6-1602.5.a cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs:development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i the need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of 7-6-1602.5.c Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1602.5	An impact fee must meet the following requirements:
The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be incurred by the governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public facilities capital improvements costs:development. The following factors must be considered 7-6-1602.5.b.i the need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements service payments, taxes, and other available sources of 7-6-1602.5.c Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:		The amount of the impact fee must be reasonably related to and roughly attributable to the	developme	ınt's sl	hare of the 7-6-1602.5.b 7-6-1602.5.b 7-6-1602.5.b 7-6-1602.5.c 7-6-1602.5.d	7-6-1602.5.a	cost of infrastructure improvements made necessary by the new
7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.i 7-6-1602.5.b.ii 7-6-1602.5.c 7-6-1602.5.c 7-6-1602.5.c 7-6-1602.5.d		The impact fees imposed may not exceed a proportionate share of the costs incurred or to be	e incurred	by the	e-
7-6-1602.5.b.i the need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of Gosts for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the;	,	governmental entity in accommodating the in determining a proportionate share of public fa	cilities cap	ital im	provements consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by or as a result of the development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other available sources of 7-6-1602.5.c Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1602.5.b	costs:development. The following factors must be considered development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements.service payments, taxes, and other- 7-6-1602.5.b.ii 7-6-1602.5.c Gosts for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place- for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1602.5.b.i	the need for public facilities capital improvements required to serve new development
7-6-1602.5.b.ii 7-6-1602.5.c Gosts for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:		consideration of payments for system improvements reasonably anticipated to be made by	or as a resu	lt of th	he-
7-6-1602.5.c Costs for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the impact fee. New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the;		development in the form of user fees, debt funding the system improvements service payme	nts, taxes,	and o	ther-
7-6-1602.5.d New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless there is a mechanism in place-for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1602.5.b.ii	available sources of
7-6-1602.5.d for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the:	7-6-1602.5.c	Gosts for correction of existing deficiencies in a public facility may not be included in the imp	act fee.
		New development may not be held to a higher level of service than existing users unless the	re is a med	hanisr	n in place
7-6-1602.5.e Impact fees may not include expenses for operations and maintenance of the facility or correction of the facility.	7-6-1602.5.d	for the existing users to make improvements to the existing system to match the;
7-6-1602.5.e Impact fees may not include expenses for operations and maintenance of the facility or correction of the facility.
	7-6-1602.5.e	Impact fees may not include expenses for operations and maintenance of the facility or corr	ection of th	ıe faci	lity.